GOLF COURSE DRESS CODE

Our dress code policy seeks to adapt to the changing fashions in the golf industry while continuing to maintain the high standards which benefit our Club and its members. Members and their guests are expected to conform to the dress code of the Club to ensure that the attire worn is respectful and appropriate for our environment. Members have a responsibility to inform their guests about the dress code requirements in advance.

Dress regulations apply equally to juniors and children of members and guests and may also be found in the member's handbook. Questions regarding the Dress Code may be directed to the Golf Shop or Club Management.

Members and guests are required to change into golf attire in the Locker Rooms. All non golf related logos on clothing must be discrete and in good taste.

Acceptable Attire – Gentlemen:

Golf shirts with a collar or recognized golf shirt design, e.g. mock neck or turtle neck. Golf pant, dress slacks, plus fours, or shorts which are no shorter than mid thigh length.

Acceptable Attire – Ladies:

Appropriate golf shirt. Golf pant, dress slacks, Capri length pants. Golf shorts, golf skirts and golf dresses which are no shorter than mid thigh length.

Footwear:

Soft spike shoes or golf sandals.

Headwear:

Must face forward at all times.

Prohibited on the Golf Course:

Clothing which is frayed or torn. Blue Jeans, sportswear (jogging pants, gym shorts, sweat pants). Shirt tails, tube tops, low cut shirts, halter tops and crop tops. Metal Spikes, Flip Flops.
